DIXON BOYS IN IOWA JAIL FOR THEFT OF AUTO

Junior Lewis and Schultheis Brothers Captured on Tuesday.

Three Dixon youths, one of whom has been on parole out of the county court for previous offenses, were prisoners in the county jail at Clinton, Iowa, today, facing serious charges, after having been hunted down by a posse of officers Tuesday night. The youths are alleged to have stolen an automobile in Clinton, which they drove away and abandoned when they discovered that officers were in pursuit. The following account of the theft and their capture as detailed in last evening's issue of the Clinton Herald follows:

Three automobile thieves who raced out of Clinton late Tuesday afternoon in a stolen automobile owned by Walter L. Meeker, 515 Melrose court, today were trailed to a point a mile east of Lowden where they were arrested by State Patrolman R. Caviness and City Marshal F. L. Moore of DeWitt.

The youths were encountered on the Northwestern railroad right-of-way near Lowden and surrendered without resistance. Late Tuesday afternoon they had successfully eluded a posse of officers which surrounded them in a cornfield five miles west of Elvira after they stalled and abandoned the stolen car on a county highway which was barricaded for gravel surfacing.

Brought to the Clinton county jail this morning by their captors, the youths were identified as Junior Lewis, 17, Alvin and Paul Schultheis, brothers, aged 17 and 15 years, all of Dixon, Ill.

The Schultheis brothers confessed to Marshal Moore and Officer Caviness that they stole the Clinton car and that it was driven by the older youth. They said they were on their way to Omaha, Neb. just "to look around."

According to Moore and Caviness, Lewis and the older Schultheis boy have previous criminal records and the latter is now on parole.

The trail of the three boys was lost west of Elvira Tuesday night but was picked up again early this morning at DeWitt where they hopped onto a Northwestern westbound passenger train at 4:45 A. M., officers learned. At Lowden they jumped off the train and from that point they were overtaken at 10 A. M. by the officers.

It was expected that charges against the trio would be filed in court this afternoon or Thursday after the facts were presented to County Attorney Leon Molloy.

Police said Meeker observed the trio getting into his car and saw them drive away. The car was parked at the time near Fifth avenue and South First street. Meeker promptly flashed an alarm to police and the alarm later was relayed to DeWitt district headquarters and to the sheriff's office.

Patrolman Caviness was close on the trail of the stolen car out of Clinton. He had stopped at police headquarters just before the report came from Meeker and immediately started in pursuit.

Within a short time the manhunt was on in earnest. With posse close on their trail the trio, blocked by the road job, abandoned the car and headed into the cornfield.

The posse composed of police, deputy sheriffs and patrolmen closed in on the cornfield but after dark the fugitives managed to elude their pursuers.

Among those participating in the chase Tuesday were Sheriff C. S. Petersen and Deputy Sheriffs Chris Stamp and Francis Ryan, State Patrolmen R. Caviness and H. M. Coleman and Police Officers William Hurlburt and Chris Hansen.

Hunchback Held in Jerusalem Murder

Jerusalem, Aug. 25.—(AP)—An Arab hunchback was held today on charges of assassinating W. S. Moffatt, British assistant district commissioner.

Moffatt died last night from five bullet wounds suffered when gunmen invaded district administrative headquarters at Jenin. Police also were searching for a band which kidnaped Hanna Khoury, a Greek monk, and his brother. Police said they believed the men were kidnaped because they refused to support anti-government activities.

Here Tomorrow

WALTER LEE

Jackson, Miss., veteran, who is heading the Mississippi Legion caravan on a 43-day parade through sixteen states. The caravan, consisting of five huge floats and two maintenance vehicles, will arrive in Dixon at 12:15 o'clock tomorrow noon and the members of the party will take lunch here.

PREDICT ARREST OF SEVERAL FOR PRISON DEATHS

Philadelphia, Aug. 25.—(AP)—Arrest of at least eight persons in the "baking to death" of four convicts who led a hunger strike at the Philadelphia county prison was predicted today by Coroner Charles A. Hersch.

He said the investigation he was conducting with District Attorney John A. Boyle indicated that at least that many would be implicated in the deaths of the men in steam-heated, almost air-tight punishment cells.

Dr. Hersch did not indicate whether the investigation involved employees of the prison, or officials. Two guards already have been held as material witnesses.

State prison investigators said they planned to "turn on the heat" and enter the stuffy cells to learn whether the punishment cell block was "a deliberately planned roast."

Charles I. Engard, secretary of welfare directing the state's investigation of the deaths Monday, disclosed that men from his office and two state policemen would make the test.

He said they would subject themselves to the same conditions the prisoners faced in the heated cells termed as horrible as the black hole of Calcutta.

He said he wanted to know if large radiators in the cell block "were really needed just to heat the building in the winter, or if there was something else in mind."

Coroner Hersch announced he would ask Governor George H. Earle for state troopers to take over the prison during the investigation.

Survey Shows 21,587 Med. Students in U.S.

Chicago, Aug. 25.—(AP)—The Journal of the American Medical Association reported today a survey showed there were 21,587 medical students in the United States in 1937, and that about 5,194 received their degree of doctor of medicine.

The association's council on medical education and hospitals pointed out there were 77 medical schools in the country now as compared with 160 in 1905.

The council reported there were 1,161 women studying medicine during the 1937-38 school year, and 372 Negro medical students.

Speeding Express Train Coasted Five Miles After Boiler Exploded

Dayton, O., Aug. 25.—(AP)—The Pennsylvania Railroad's "St. Louisan" proceeded for five miles downgrade today after a boiler explosion killed its engineer, John Breen, and fireman, R. H. Mitchell.

Railroad officials at Columbus said the combination of escaping steam and a curve near Cedarville apparently stopped the train, which runs between New York and St. Louis.

Both engineers, thrown from the cab, lived in Columbus, O. The train, with steam gushing from the burst boiler, coasted through Cedarville, 6 miles east of here, passed the Main street

ANOTHER SPAN OF OLD BRIDGE IS DISMANTLED

Camera Fans Given Opportunity to Snap Operations Today

Cameras of Dixon were given an excellent opportunity to test their skill this morning when the second span of the old Galena avenue bridge was dropped from its piers to the bed of Rock river. Superintendent of construction Max Sommers received numerous requests since the first of the week, to drop the span during the day time to permit amateur photographers to take pictures of the falling span.

The dismantling program was timed to provide for the dropping of the pier about 7 o'clock this morning, but it was about 8:15 when the big crane snapped the steel support which held the skeleton of the span in place and it crashed into the water as a large crowd watched the operation. Acetylene torches were started immediately dismantling the span and hauling the steel out of the river.

The next operation will be the dismantling of the stone pier nearest the south bank. The stone will be used in building the south retaining wall. The greater part of the stone from the other piers will be used by the park district in constructing a sea wall on the north bank of the river.

Work from North Side

The wrecking operations will now be carried on from the north bank, while one force of workmen start at once in making the excavations in the bed of the stream for the south piers. Contractor Shappert hopes to be able to pour all of the piers before severe freezing weather sets in. No attempt to pour the deck will be made until next spring, it was stated today and during the winter months the contractor will be engaged in constructing the approaches on both ends of the new stream-lined structure.

Materials which will be used in the construction of the new bridge are being shipped to Dixon from points on the Atlantic and Pacific coasts. Two cars of sheet steel piling, which have been unloaded, were shipped from Buffalo, N. Y. Others to follow will come from Pittsburgh, Pa.

One car load of 12 x 12 ft timbers is enroute to Dixon from Washington. The cypress piling, several cars of which will be used, is being shipped from Tennessee. Yellow pine timbers which will support the forms in which the concrete will be poured are being shipped from Arkansas.

Treated Ply Wood

Ply wood is to be used in lining the forms for the concrete. This is a new product being used by contractors and is treated to prevent the concrete sticking to the surface, and will be shipped to Dixon from the state of Oregon. The ply wood will fit into the forms in sections and will be removed from one location to another as the piers are poured.

According to reports today, it has not been determined whether the cement to be used in the new structure will come from the Me-

The Last Resort

Washington, Aug. 25.—(AP)—A resident of the middle west wrote President Roosevelt for Social Security aid. His letter said:

Dear Mr. Roosevelt, "I have written to the mayor and to the governor but still haven't received any relief. Now, if you can't help me, I'm going to write to Uncle Sam."

CORONER FILES MANDAMUS SUIT AGAINST BOARD

A petition for a writ of mandamus prepared by Attorney Elwin Wadsworth, representing Dr. Kenyon B. Segner, Lee county coroner, was filed in the circuit court today. The action is a friendly proceeding in which Coroner Segner seeks a court ruling on the subject of the county board of supervisors' obligations to approve the payment of certain costs incurred in the performance of the duties of coroner. Attorney Wadsworth stated that the action was started to clarify legal obligations of the board of supervisors with relation to the coroner's office.

The first Monday in September is the return date for filing of an answer by the county board of supervisors, when a hearing is to be held before one of the three circuit judges.

Dr. Segner maintains that the expenses of the coroner's office for the year 1937 were greater than the fees collected by him, and that claims filed for expenses with the board of supervisors have been refused. The necessity of hiring a shorthand reporter inquests to transcribe testimony when in the discretion of the coroner, such services are required, the compensation to be paid by the county board, together with other necessary and essential expenses incurred in the conduct of inquests by the coroner, are also claimed by Dr. Segner as actual and necessary expenses of the office for which the county board should provide.

Mississippi Legion Caravan Will Stop in Dixon on Friday

Harry D. Miller and Karl Forsberg of this city will act as a reception committee Friday, to a delegation of members of the Department of Mississippi American Legion, who are enroute to the national convention at Los Angeles, Cal. The Mississippi Legionnaires will lead the parade in the west coast city, and are travelling overland with five floats, which are scheduled to arrive in Dixon at 12:15 noon tomorrow and remain here during the lunch hour.

Accompanying the Mississippi Legionnaires will be Miss Elaine Russell of that state, who is known as "Miss American Legion" of the entire nation. Miss Russell is official greeter of Governor Hugh L. White of Mississippi.

Walter Lee is in charge of the caravan of Mississippi Legionnaires and is accompanied by several of the district commanders and state department officers. Lee was a "buddy" of Harry Miller during the World War and through this acquaintanceship, the caravan was routed by way of Dixon with a stop-over for luncheon arranged at this point. It will be their first meeting since the close of the war.

COCHRAN TO RED SOX?

Philadelphia, Aug. 25.—(AP)—The Evening Ledger said today that Gordon S. (Mickey) Cochran, former Detroit manager, definitely was slated as a catcher for the Boston Red Sox next year with the "fingers pointing to the managerial toga in 1940."

Amboy "Detective" Taken in Custody

LeRoy Dierdorff, 28, of Amboy, amateur detective, was arrested at 1 o'clock this morning in Amboy by Officer Louis Scott and is held in the county jail under bond of $1,000 on a charge of carrying concealed weapons. Arraigned before Judge Gehant this morning, Dierdorff stated that his hobby was that of a detective and that he was at present taking a course as a masseur. The hearing was continued for a period of one week and Dierdorff was taken to the county jail.

Late last night, Officer Scott was informed that a young man acting strangely was seen on the west side of Amboy near the high school. The officer went to the scene and waited until about 1 o'clock this morning when Scott observed Dierdorff going to his home and took him in custody. When searched, Dierdorff was found to be carrying a .32 automatic pistol in a shoulder holster, an extra clip of ammunition and a flash light. He was taken to the Amboy city jail and held until this morning when he was brought to Dixon.

Three Bands on Pro- gram for Horse Show

Music lovers will enjoy a festival over the week end at the annual Lee County Fair and Horse Show at the Dixon Municipal Airport. Two high school bands which last week participated in the annual Chicago-Land Music Festival at Soldier Field will be heard, together with the Dixon Municipal band.

The Mt. Morris high school band is scheduled to furnish the music Friday afternoon and evening, the opening day of the show. On Saturday the high school band of Lanark will dispense melody throughout the afternoon and evening shows. Miss Beth Hower is the conductor of both of these fine organizations, which have participated in numerous contests and have won several prizes.

The Dixon Municipal band will furnish the music for the Sunday afternoon show and in the evening several drum and bugle corps will compete for prizes, which will feature the closing of the show.

CHARGE RACKET MANAGER STOLE FROM "EMPIRE"

Weinberg Resumes His Testimony Against Tammany Leader

New York, Aug. 25.—(AP)—Unruffled under a raking cross-examination, George Weinberg, 26, business manager of the old Dutch Schultz gang, today denied accusations by counsel for James J. Hines that he stole $300,000 from the Schultz "policy empire."

Weinberg, resuming his testimony against Hines, Tammany district leader on trial charged with conspiring to extend political protection to the gang, was questioned closely about the Schultz treasury.

"What happened to that money?" Defense Counsel Lloyd Paul Stryker demanded, referring to one item of $300,000.

"Well, Schultz—" Weinberg began.

"You stole it, Weinberg, didn't you?" Stryker rasped. "You stole it, didn't you?"

"No," Weinberg replied calmly. Weinberg maintained his sphinx-like poise in the face of Stryker's shouted barrage of questions, which drew repeated objections from District Attorney Thomas E. Dewey.

"Let the witness answer the question," Dewey protested as Stryker tumbled one question on top of another in a rapid-fire succession that left Weinberg open-mouthed.

State's Principal Witness
As the state's principal witness thus far, Weinberg had testified that the racket syndicate cleared $780,000 during 1936 days.

"Then the fix on race-track numbers went off," Weinberg related, "and our banks were hit for $400,000 in one month's time."

"But the other $300,000—what happened to that?" Stryker persisted.

"Well, Schultz got it," Weinberg said.

Meticulously polite throughout the early stages of the trial, always addressing Weinberg as "Mister," Stryker boomed at the witness today, dropped the "Mister" and berated him roundly for what he described as evasive answers on financial matters connected with the Schultz racket.

"Weinberg," he said, "you wouldn't have any scruples about stealing, would you, you wouldn't mind pilfering that $300,000, would you, Weinberg, would you steal that money?"

Witness Flushed
The witness flushed. "I don't know," he said.

"You have stolen, haven't you, and perjured yourself?"

"I never stole," Weinberg said. Through a barrage of questions by Stryker, Weinberg denied he had "cooked up" his story of a politico-racketeer combine in pre-trial conversations with "Big Harry" Schoenhaut and J. Richard (Dixie) Davis, the "kid mouth-pieces" of the multi-million dollar Dutch Schultz policy racket.

"How do you regard yourself as a perjurer—good or bad?" demanded Stryker.

"Well, it couldn't be very good," "It couldn't be very good, could it?"

On One Lesson

Eugene, Ore., Aug. 25.—(AP)—Mike Dickens, confirmed bait fisherman, took a fly casting lesson "just for fun." Then he headed for the McKenzie river.

On his first cast he landed a 19-inch, two and one-half pound trout.

"Colonel" Young, Promoter, and Bride of 3 Months are Sought

Lombard, Ill., Aug. 25.—(AP)—Al D. Young, who wore a broad-brimmed hat and called himself "Colonel" while promoting a dude ranch enterprise in the village of New Lebanon, was sought today by police in DuPage, Kane and DeKalb counties.

He and his bride of three months, the former Mrs. Mae Peterson, secretary of the Lombard school board, were named yesterday in warrants charging embezzlement of $5,000. Alan Myers, chief investigator of the DuPage county state's attorney's office, said the money represented tax anticipation warrants of the village schools.

Myers said Young came to New

Sends Greeting

L. W. MILLER

County Superintendent of Schools for the past 28 years, who today, on page 10, sends his greetings to the pupils of Lee county schools, most of which will open Sept. 6. Mr. Miller will voluntarily retire from educational circles when he completes his present term as superintendent, one of real accomplishment. When he took office Lee county was without a standard or superior school. During his term over a hundred schools in the county have won recognition from the state as standard schools, and the county now has 27 superior schools.

2 WOMEN HELD FOR MURDER OF STATE FARMER

Fairfield, Ill., Aug. 25.—(AP)—Two young women from the mountains of eastern Tennessee were charged with murder today in the killing of Felix Shannon, Mount Erie farmer, whose nude body was found Monday in the bedroom of his home. Sheriff Earnest Burkett announced.

The warrants were signed by Perry Shannon, brother of the dead man, Burkett reported.

The sheriff said all persons who saw the two women hitch-hikers with Shannon Sunday, or observed them in their flight Monday, after the slaying, would view the prisoners today. These witnesses included Carlyle, 8-year-old son of Shannon and his estranged wife.

The prisoners, Jean Brooks, 23, of Elizabethtown, Tenn., and Beulah Honeycutt, 25, of Johnson City, Tenn., were arrested Tuesday at Hopkinsville, Ky., and brought to the Wayne county jail.

Both denied any connection with the killing or that they ever had been in Illinois, the sheriff said.

Burkett declared Shannon picked up two women at Princeton, Ind., Sunday, while his son, Carlyle, was with him. Burkett said he followed the trail of the women after the slaying, through the Mount Erie bottom lands, to Albion, Princeton, Ind., and to Henderson, Ky.

Shannon, 56 years old, had been shot twice through the head. His automobile was found in a ditch, a mile and a half from his home. His own pistol, with three discharged cartridges, was found behind the car. Only 13 cents was found in his clothing.

Shannon's widow and five children, who reside at Somerville, Ind., attended his funeral services yesterday at Mount Erie.

14 YEARS FOR SLAYER

Metropolis, Ill., Aug. 25.—(AP)—Floss Porter, a Negro, was sentenced to 14 years in prison today by Circuit Judge Hal Spann, when he pleaded guilty of murdering Earl Lindsey, Negro, of Jopka.

JAPAN'S WARNING

Shanghai, Aug. 25.—(AP)—A Japanese naval spokesman served warning today that any civilian plane flying over what Japan has designated the war area of China was in danger of being shot down.

He declared that the airliner of the Chinese-American China National Aviation Corporation which was forced down and machine-gunned by Japanese warplanes near Canton yesterday was mistaken for a Chinese bomber.

TWO BATTALIONS OF CHINESE RE- PORTED VICTIMS

Allegation Filed With Great Britain Today by Ambassador

London, Aug. 25.—(AP)—China charged Japan today with "creating a grave situation" by the use of poison gas.

In a communication to the British foreign office, Quo Tai-Chi, Chinese ambassador to Great Britain declared all but four members of two Chinese battalions were killed Monday when Japanese used poison gas to stop a Chinese counter-attack in northern Kiangsi province.

"Recourse to such methods of warfare," Quo declared, "is in violation of existing international conventions to which Japan is a signatory."

JAPS CLAIM SUCCESS

Shanghai, Aug. 25.—(AP)—A final, successful assault of July 26, a major objective in the Japanese drive toward the provisional capital of Hankow, was reported this afternoon in a Japanese army communiqué.

The victory, the first notable Japanese advance since the invaders' occupation July 26 of Kiangsi, a Yangtze river port 21 miles to the east, occurred in sweltering heat of 140 degrees.

Chinese military sources reported 30 Japanese warships steamed along Poyang lake, a large body of water lying between Kiangsi and Manchang, and heavily bombarded Chinese shore positions near Wucheng on the west bank.

Reports from Foochow, capital of Fukien province on the southeastern Chinese coast, said warships from Japanese warships off Foochow seized and burned 17 Chinese junks with a great loss of life.

Chinese newspapers published accounts that three successive chairmen of the Japanese-sponsored local government of Pootung, Shanghai industrial section, had been captured and beheaded by Chinese guerrillas.

12 DIED IN PLANE

Hongkong, Aug. 25.—(AP)—Airline officials said tonight they believed at least 12 persons died inside the Chinese-American airliner which was forced down and machine-gunned by Japanese warplanes yesterday between Canton and Macao.

A spokesman for the China National Aviation Corporation, the owners, said the line's reports indicated the plane, riddled by machine-gun bullets, was submerged in the small river on which the American pilot, H. L. Woods of Winfield, Kas., set it down.

Only three survivors who reached Macao were accounted definitely for tonight—Woods, the radio operator, Loe Loh, and a passenger, C. N. Lou—although earlier reports said two wounded Chinese passengers were in a hospital at Shekhi, north of Macao. Passenger Lou also was wounded.

Woods, who reached Macao aboard a sampan and was brought then to Hongkong aboard the United States gunboat Mindanao, said he believed all the missing were killed or wounded in the machine-gunning of the plane.

Moreover he reported he heard bomb explosions while lying in a semi-conscious condition on the river bank. Trying to swim ashore he was caught in the current and reached the bank exhausted.

An airline official said it was believed there were only 17 persons aboard the plane, which left Hongkong yesterday for Chungking, one of China's temporary capitals. Earlier accounts said there were 19. All but Woods were Chinese.

Search parties spread through the countryside around the scene of the attack in search for survivors. In addition to the Mindanao, which sped from Hongkong to Macao to help survivors, the rescue forces included a British gunboat and Chinese troops.

FINAL BAND CONCERT

The 1938 Mount Morris summer concert season will close next Saturday, August 27 with a gala program to be presented by Kable Brothers 129th Infantry band. Following an established custom, the first concert of the season was presented by the Mount Morris Community School band and, while the 129th band was taking part in the annual field training of the 33rd Division, the school band carried on at home by furnishing two interesting concert programs. A total of ten concerts has been given by Kable Brothers 129th Infantry band during the 1938 summer season. To encourage the development of young solo and ensemble players, Captain Bronson has featured several youthful artists on his programs, as well as to make room for promising youthful material in his band.

That concerts by Kable Brothers 129th Infantry band are popular is attested by the increasingly large audiences which have in some instances braved the elements to be present. Music lovers from a radius of nearly a hundred miles come to Mount Morris regularly on Saturday evening. There are two couples from Freeport who have not missed coming to Mount Morris for Kable Brothers 129th Infantry band concerts in two years time. A fine testimonial to the excellence of Kable Brothers 129th Infantry band was given by Mrs. Roy J. Webb, wife of Dr. Townsend's business manager, when she stated that, while she was from Long Beach, Calif., where good music was a part of the daily routine of the city, she had never heard a finer organization than Kable Brothers 129th Infantry band.

Appearing for the first time as soloist with the band, Miss Helen Barnhizer is sure to delight her audience Saturday evening. Miss Barnhizer possesses a lovely soprano voice and a charming personality which gives promise of a successful artistic career.

Arden Rice, youthful cornetist, was scheduled to play on August 13, but unavoidable circumstances prevented his appearance at that time. Arden is a Monroe Center grade school pupil and a cornet student of Gerald Huffman.

Richard Bentley has set out to become a nationally famous trombonist and, if progress made thus far is a barometer for future accomplishments, Dick will easily attain his goal. An honor graduate with the 1938 class, Polo high school, Richard has studied trombone under Lester Palmer, of Mt. Morris and S. E. Mear, White-water, Wis. Dick has won state honors on the trombone and was selected for membership in the great 1938 National High School band, which played at St. Louis, Missouri, last March.

A piccolo solo by Staff Sergeant Lee Douglas is always a gem of musical perfection. Few there are who can so capably perform upon this diminutive instrument. Sgt. Douglas easily ranks as an artist of outstanding ability on both the piccolo and flute.

Just a few years ago, Robert Klepfer was taking lessons on the clarinet and saxophone from Everett Gavin and doing a very creditable job of going to high school. Now, after four years at the great Ernest Williams Band School, Brooklyn, N. Y., a winter of choir leading and a summer as instructor in a summer college music course, Robert, home for a brief vacation, will step before Saturday's audience a consummate soloist. Mr. Klepfer has selected Rehl's difficult "Duchess" as the number of which a host of musical friends may gauge the constant development of our gifted local artist.

Captain Bronson and his players are laying plans for a busy fall and winter season. Their first engagement will be a concert at the Kirkland horse show, September 25. Other bookings are in the process of development.

Following is the program for the concert Saturday evening:

- March, "National Emblem" .... Bagley
- Overture, "Il Guarany" .... Gomez
- Cornet solo, "Lily" ... Vandercook
- Arden Rice, Monroe Center grade school
- (a) March, "In Springtime" .... Goldman
- (b) March, "The Footlifter" ... Fillmore
- Featuring Arnold Blecker and Richard Fry, Mt. Morris Community school band
- Trombone solo, "Valse Caprice" .... Norman Hanley
- Richard Bentley
- (a) "Narcissus" .... Nevil
- (b) "Glow Worm" .... Lincke
- (c) "Doll Dance" .... Brown
- Vocal solo, "Smilin' Through" ... Alford
- Miss Helen Barnhizer, Soprano
- Piccolo solo, "Nola" .... Arndt
- Staff Sgt. Lee Douglas
- Modern rhythm "Panamana" ... Alford
- Adapted for band by Lester Palmer, member of Kable Brothers 129th Infantry Band
- Saxophone solo, "The Duchess" .... Robert Klepfer
- Finale—March, "His Honor" ... Fillmore
- Auld Lang Syne
- NATIONAL ANTHEM

This concert brings the 1938 Mt. Morris concert season to a close. The members of the band wish to express their appreciation for the fine, attentive audiences.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER
Miss Elsie Mae Klepfer, Mrs. Russell Colburn, Mrs. Everett Henderson, Mrs. Martin Mennenga entertained at a miscellaneous shower in honor of Mrs. Laverne Edwards, a bride of the month, Tuesday evening at the Klepfer home. The evening was spent playing buncos and dainty refreshments were served. Twenty-five former classmates and friends were present.

ENTERTAINED AT DINNER
Mr. and Mrs. Walter Klepfer entertained a group of friends at dinner Sunday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. R. Carlson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Butcher and son Bobby, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Spear, all of DeKalb, Raymond Burnell, Aurora; Birrell Clutz, Franklin Grove and Vernon Wilson, Mt.

BACKACHE, LEG PAINS MAY BE DANGER SIGN Of Tired Kidneys

If backache and leg pains are making you miserable, don't just complain and do nothing about them. Nature may be warning you that your kidneys need attention. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking excess acids and poisonous waste out of the blood. Most people pass about 3 pints a day or about 3 pounds of waste. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning shows there may be something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matter stays in the blood. These poisons may start nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Don't wait. Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from the blood. Get Doan's Pills.

BRITAIN PLANS NEW MOVES FOR CZECH PROBLEM

Rumored John Bull Will Aid France in Protecting Little Republic

London, Aug. 25.—(AP)—The British government, diplomatic quarters, heard today, has evolved plans for a new step toward solving Czechoslovakia's minority problem.

One source suggested Great Britain had decided to give France "unmistakable assurance" of support if conflict resulted, and if France were called upon to fulfill treaty obligations to Czechoslovakia.

The French government is obligated to aid the little republic if it is attacked, but Britain has made no such commitment.

The Czechoslovak minority troubles center about demands of the nazi-endorsed Sudeten German party for autonomy in local government.

Chancellor Hitler of Germany has avowed the nazis are protectors of Germans everywhere, and France, Czechoslovakia and Great Britain have expressed varying degrees of fear that Germany might take military action to aid the Sudeten Germans in getting their demands.

Speculation about new steps by Britain sprang from the return yesterday of R. F. Ashton-Gwatkin, one of Viscount Runciman's chief assistants in British efforts to mediate the autonomy dispute. Ashton-Gwatkin flew from Prague, presumably to confer with foreign office officials.

The Daily Mail, discussing the reported decision of Britain to give assurances to France, said government circles reached the conclusion something must be done quickly to ease growing tension in central Europe.

England imports more than 42,000,000 rabbits annually.

CAPEHART FARM GOP RALLY ONE OF THE BIGGEST

Thousands to Gather in Indianapolis Friday and Saturday

Washington, August 25.—Final plans were completed today for the "cornfield" Republican forum conference of Republican leaders and candidates for House and Senate from the middle-western states which will take place at Indianapolis Friday.

Issues and plans for the Republican campaign will be informally discussed, in executive session, with the middle-western Republicans, by John Hamilton, chairman of the Republican national committee; Representative Joseph W. Martin, Jr. chairman of the congressional campaign committee; Senator John G. Townsend, Jr., chairman of the Republican senatorial campaign committee; Representative James W. Wadsworth, chairman of the House Republican policy committee, and Miss Marion E. Martin, assistant chairman of the Republican national committee in charge of women's activities.

Invitations to attend this meeting have been sent to Republican leaders and congressional and senatorial candidates in Illinois, Michigan, Ohio, Wisconsin, Kentucky, West Virginia, Iowa, Kansas, Minneapolis and Missouri, as well as Indiana.

This event will inaugurate the two-day Indiana Republican rally. On Saturday, at Capehart Farms, near Washington, Indiana, a huge Republican rally will be held. Representative Wadsworth will make the keynote address at that event and Chairman Hamilton, Representative Martin, Senator Townsend and Miss Martin will speak.

Address Broadcast
Wadsworth's address, which will open the active Republican campaign for House and Senate seats in the middle-western "bread basket" states, will be broadcast over a nationwide network of the National Broadcasting Company commencing at 3 P. M. (CST) Saturday.

Preceding the rally Homer E. Capehart, owner of Capehart Farms, will be host at luncheon to approximately 7,000 Indiana Republican leaders, district and precinct workers, as well as guests from outside the state. These 7,000 guests will be seated in a huge tent and will be served a hot luncheon.

The Republican events in Indiana

Brain Twizzlers By PROF. J. D. FLINT

Let's go traveling! Everyone enjoys that. Suppose we go to a big exposition. We'll take in the fancy entertainment such as shows and dancing in the evenings but in the daytime we'd better get around to more worthwhile things. There are one hundred and seventy buildings that we ought to see. If, by really going after it methodically, we see half the buildings the first day, half of the remaining buildings the next day and so on until we finish, how long will it take us to see all the buildings?

Answer to Yesterday's Twizzler
Thirteen dollars and fourteen half-dollars.
(Copyright, John F. Dille Co.)

will commence at 1 P. M. on Friday when Miss Martin will be the guest of honor of the Republican women workers of Indiana along with Republican women from other states. Miss Martin will speak at the luncheon.

The Republican forum will be held Friday afternoon and evening. Chairman Hamilton will outline to the conferees the issues and problems of the campaign and the meeting will then be thrown open for an informal and frank discussion of this subject. This meeting will be held in executive session.

There also will be held Friday at Capehart Farms a local Republican rally at which Raymond E. Willis, the Republican senatorial candidate in Indiana, will be the chief speaker, preceded by a concert by a 100 piece band. Some 60 spotlights and 2,500 light bulbs have been installed on Capehart Farms to provide light for this meeting.

Five special trains will operate from points in Indiana and Capehart Farms on Saturday, while a parking space for more than 4,000 automobiles has been provided at Capehart Farms.

"TALL STORIES"—No. 5

"Riding to hounds one day I fell far behind the other huntsmen. I sat down on a log to quench my thirst with a bottle of Blatz Old Heidelberg beer. Suddenly along came the poor fox with his tongue hanging out. I was horrified to discover that it was Albert, the pet fox of the gardener's children. The hounds had lost the wild fox and had switched off on poor Albert's trail. I had to save Albert! I offered him what was left of my Blatz Old Heidelberg beer—and he eagerly seized it in his paw and drank it up. With a grateful wink in my direction, Albert was off again, swift as a breeze! To this day those hounds are probably wondering whatever became of that fox."

IT'S NOT A PURGE?

Two college professors were discussing on the radio the other day the use of the words "purge" and "dictatorship" in connection with President Roosevelt's ambitions to control congress.

They seemed quite amused and one of them suggested that the use of the words purge and dictatorship was merely a form of name calling a thing resorted to when reasoning would fail.

It is a fact that the terms as now used came to us after they were applicable to Germany and Russia. Stalin ousts his enemies with the firing squad, but in a measure he followed precedent established by the Czarist government, which exiled its enemies to Siberia. Stalin, who himself had been a Siberian exile, resorted to more violent methods. Adolf Hitler has followed two kinds of purges. In the most notable of these he took part himself and silenced an opponent forever by means of a revolver. At the same time his assistants were slaughtering other opponents. In connection with that form of purge Mr. Hitler said:

"I had to be the supreme court."

Hitler also has removed his enemies simply by ousting them from their official positions. Commentators have referred to these political removals as purges without encountering the ridicule of college professors. It would seem that it is all right to refer to an ousting in Germany as a purge, but not correct to refer to an attempted ousting in the United States as an attempted purge.

As to dictatorship, we doubt whether either Stalin, Mussolini or Hitler would call themselves dictators. They simply are leaders of the people. At last reports Stalin was a chairman of some sort in the communist party. Mussolini is minister of this and minister of that. Hitler is president-chancellor of the German "republic."

The professors are right in one respect. Mr. Roosevelt is not a dictator yet. However, if he succeeds in electing a congress dominated by 100 per cent yes-men, who will enact all the laws he proposes; if he succeeds in getting that congress to pack the supreme court so full of yes-men that the dissenters will be in a minority, and if he succeeds in reorganizing the government so as to have more complete control than he now has, it would appear that dictatorship would be at hand. But Mr. Roosevelt, if he had all these powers for which he has struggled, would not call himself a dictator. Not at all. He would say he was carrying out the mandate of the people.

Dictator is a word derived from the Latin language, and it is appropriate that it should come from that source. Long after the Romans had succumbed to dictatorial government—even when it had embraced hereditary monarchy—the Roman senate survived. It was a body of yes-men. They were laden with honors and titles and at times the senators' dignity knew no limits, but their voice in governmental affairs amounted to nothing. They dared not even protest against a law. The Roman senators got themselves into that position by becoming yes-men in the first place, and no doubt the Roman college professors ridiculed the idea that a dictatorship was brewing.

FED UP WITH WAR

Two American deserters from the loyalist forces in Spain are complaining to members of a committee of the house of representatives that they didn't like the war and were not treated properly by their Communist commanding officers. It seems there is an Abraham Lincoln brigade in the loyalist army, although why they should call it that is a mystery. Anyway, the two boys who have been doing the complaining said they were virtually prisoners, and that there are a lot of other American boys still serving under the loyalists who would like to come home.

There is nothing surprising about that. When these boys enlisted they probably imagined they were about to do great and noble deeds on behalf of civilization. They didn't understand that even in the best-equipped armies life consists of a great deal of hardship, aching feet, weary backs and bad food. Then there are such constant irritations as bombs, bayonets and bullets. One of the great tragedies of army service in the eyes of many soldiers, is the fact that one can't quit and walk out on the command when things go against the grain. In that respect a soldier is a prisoner. Now it is no vacation to be compelled to serve for a certain length of time even in the American army, but Americans withstood that irritation because of their patriotism. But to generate patriotic feeling for the Communists' beloved Spain must be a hard task.

Judging by the amount of pacifist sentiment that has been displayed in this country in the last few years it is difficult to imagine that there are enough American boys—purely volunteers—in the Spanish armies to occupy the attention of a house committee.

We would not jeer at the boys for injecting themselves into a foreign war so long as they don't entangle the rest of us. If we were engaged in a war of our own these lads probably would be in the thick of it. Perhaps they were communistically inclined, but they can overcome that. At least they are go-getters.

Washington.—Some of the President's most trusted advisers are counseling him to hold off appointing Justice Cardozo's successor until the new Congress convenes in January.

Reason is: An appointment in October gives the opposition three months to organize and wage a fight against confirmation. But if the appointment is made in January after Congress meets, the Administration would be in a strong position to press for prompt confirmation.

The President also has been advised that to allow the vacancy to go unfilled during the remainder of the congressional interim will make no change in the lineup of the Court. Cardozo's illness kept him away from the bench practically the entire Court session; nevertheless the government won 21 out of 23 of its important cases.

The lineup of the Court is now 4-2-2, as follows: four liberals (Brandeis, Stone, Black and Reed), two die-hard conservatives (McReynolds and Butler), and two middle-of-the-roads, Chief Justice Hughes and Justice Roberts. Last term Hughes and Roberts sided with the liberals on every test involving a New Deal measure.

Note.—Professor Felix Frankfurter continues to hold the lead over all other candidates for Cardozo's place. At present betting he is 10 to 1 to get the appointment.

Touche.

What Secretary Henry Wallace thinks of Senator "Cotton Ed" Smith, who has obstructed and harpooned New Deal farm measures since 1933, is plain. But Henry is a different gentleman who keeps his scorching opinions to himself.

The other day, however, he heaved a sly brickbat at the bombastic South Carolinian that was worthy of a master.

A reporter inquired, "Are you in favor of extending the President's purge to old 'Cotton Ed'?"

Wallace thought a moment and then, with a faint smile, replied quietly, "I am in favor of anything that would benefit the American farmer."

MR. FITZ.

You have to hand it to Assistant Secretary of State Berle when it comes to egotism.

Discussing the monopoly probe with President Roosevelt, Berle exclaimed, "Mr. President, if you will give me the commission to do so I am perfectly willing and able to rehabilitate the entire capitalist system!"

"Really," smiled Roosevelt, "it's as easy as that, eh?"

Note.—Not a member of the anti-trust investigation, Berle on his own initiative prepared a 33-page "confidential" memorandum on how the probe should be conducted. When the committee paid no attention to the document Berle carefully let it leak to the press.

Ambitious Son-in-Law.

It is supposed to be a deep secret, but U. S. Maritime Commissioner Max O'Rell Truitt, son-in-law of Senator Alben Barkley, is busily pulling wires to wangle himself into the vacancy on the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Whether the ambitious young man will cop the choice prize remains to be seen. So far his rise has been meteoric.

A few years ago he was one of the RFC's numerous "special counsels," receiving a per diem pay check. Today he is drawing $12,000 a year, while the SEC

Answer to Question No. 1

1. That wise social commentator, Gelett Burgess, argues that women don't know how to smoke or when to smoke or where to smoke. He says a woman taps a cigarette on one end usually without knowing why, just as a dog turns round three times before lying down; she lights it not to get a satisfying smoke but to wave a flag of freedom and say to the whole world, "Now I can do as I please and I please to imitate men." Well, I won't pursue the subject further, but I honestly think that if the fashion should change most women would quit smoking overnight while men would go right on smoking—both in this world and the next.

Answer to Question No. 2

2. Princess Kropotkin stated recently that this is a Chinese custom. Some children's names indicate the parents could not have been in their right minds—if they had any—when they christened their children. Painful examples will occur to you. Most of our English names sound so pleasing to our ears that I think any child given a new one invented by the parents should be allowed—indeed expected—to change it. I know one boy named "Vitamin," one named "Cloudless Morning" and a girl named "Calorie" and a boy named Arson! I'd be glad to hear of more of these tragic fancies.

Answer to Question No. 3

3. Yes, although that does not have much influence on bringing such things to pass. The supreme duty of every generation is to build a world in which children can grow up happily and find jobs that will develop all their possibilities. When we have failed to fulfill this great promise of life, youth has a right to rebel and accuse us. But if youth does not cooperate to the limit of its capacity to make a secure world—then it, too, is false to its opportunity and duty. Copyright, 1938, John F. Dille Co.

post would be for six years at $10,000.

Reason for Truitt's desire to switch jobs is that his Maritime appointment is only temporary, and labor is gunning for him because of his pronounced anti-union bias. Feeling on this count became so strong several months ago that the laborites warned Barkley that unless he silenced his son-in-law they would hold it against him in his fight with "Happy" Chandler.

Barkley must have talked to Truitt, because a shroud of silence descended upon him.

Truitt is only 34, a native of Missouri with a Chamber of Commerce background. From the insignificant rank of special RFC counsel in 1935, he zoomed at one leap to Solicitor of the RFC at $10,000 a year. Two years later, upon the establishment of the Maritime Commission, he was promoted to be its General Counsel.

Then last winter, when Chairman Joe Kennedy was elevated to Ambassador to England, Truitt was named to Joe's unexpired term with a $12,000 salary.

Note.—At the time of this appointment, Barkley insisted it was a surprise to him and that the first he knew about it was when he read the papers.

Merry-Go-Round.

As a public show the Dies un-Americanism probe is a total washout. At none of its sessions have there been more than 50 spectators, most of the time far fewer than that. At the La Follette Civil Liberties hearings hundreds of spectators were turned away daily for lack of room. Behind Jim Farley's efforts to block the Presidential purge of Representative John O'Connor is the fact that O'Connor was Farley's secret ally in Tammany Hall. . . . On almost every important desk in Washington now two books are to be seen—Jonathan Daniels' best-selling "A Southerner Discovers the South" and the sensational Southern

Relatives of Dixon Woman Provide Future Home for Jewish Children From Germany

Mrs. Fremont Kaufman, 123 College avenue, returned Tuesday evening from a visit in Chicago with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Max Korshak. While in Chicago, she assisted in welcoming four young Jewish refugees from Germany, who are to be given American homes and education, and who arrived in Chicago from New York City on Saturday.

A solemn promise made the children in Sennfeld, Germany a year ago to help them reach America where they might have freedom to play, to talk, to laugh, and where they might in time lead a normal American life—forgetting the Nazi persecution of the Jews—culminated last week, when the children, said to be the last youngsters of their race left in their native town, reached Chicago to find a home and friends awaiting them.

The children, Joachim Neuberger, 15, his brother, Lothar, 14, and their sisters, Erica, 10, and Berti, 12, accompanied by their aunt, Fraulein Selma Taltmeier, arrived in company with Mr. and Mrs. Korshak, who reside at 506 Roscoe street, Chicago. The Korshaks have been on a three months' visit in Germany, and they plan to provide a future home for the Neuberger children.

The original plan of the Korshaks, who became interested in the children through mutual friends was to bring the two girls to this country, but upon visiting in the home and finding the parents so overjoyed in the suggestion, they brought all four children. The aunt, also an immigrant, suggested that she come along to assist with the children, and she, too, was brought along.

When questioned by newspaper reporters in Chicago, Joachim, the spokesman for the little group, was careful not to discuss actual happenings there, but said: "There is no home anywhere for the Jews in Germany. We can never go back. We hope to see our parents again, but only if they come here."

Mrs. Kaufman and other close relatives of the Korshaks were present at the latter's home to greet and become acquainted with the new members of the household.

Women Golfers Hold Tri-City Tourney on Country Club Links

Yesterday morning's rain failed to dampen plans of Dixon Country club women golfers for a Guest Day tournament, with 15 visiting players from the Rochelle and Twin City clubs as guests. The links event was for 18 holes against bogey, and for low putts.

Miss Mary Katherine Rorer won against bogey among the 12 Dixon players who turned out for the affair, and Mrs. Robert Brewster had low putts. Mrs. McKean of Twin City and Mrs. Faye Carter of Rochelle turned in low scores for the guest players, and Mrs. Hueber had low putts for Twin City. Mrs. Hilda Carron was fortunate in the draw to decide a four-way tie among low putters in the Rochelle group.

Luncheon was served at the clubhouse, following the morning's round on the links.

On Friday, women of the local club will be testing their endurance in a dawn-to-dusk "marathon." They plan to tee off at 7 A. M. and play until 7 P. M.

Last of the twilight two-ball mixed foursome series of the season will be concluded at 5:30 P. M. Monday. Next Wednesday, prizes for various match events of the season will be awarded at luncheon, following the regular morning's links event.

PASTOR RETURNS FROM VACATION

The Rev. and Mrs. Howard P. Buxton and their sons, Bob and James, returned yesterday from two weeks' vacation at Ephraim, Wis. Earlier in the summer the family was vacationing in the east.

Mr. Buxton will resume regular services at the First Methodist Episcopal church on Sunday morning.

Vacationing Dixonites Continue to Come and Go as August Days Begin to Wane

Though the end of August is approaching much more rapidly than thought possible, several Dixonites are starting out on late vacation trips, while others are just returning to town.

His boyhood home in Norwood, Mass., which he has not seen in 21 years, is the destination of Mr. and Mrs. David Pearson, who were heading eastward this morning. They plan to spend two weeks with his parents before returning to Dixon.

Miss Marian L. Davies will be heading eastward, too, before long. She plans to leave Sunday morning for New York City, after spending the past two months at her Hennepin avenue apartment. An ardent golfer, Miss Davies has been serving as August chairman of golf events for women players on the Dixon Country club links.

Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Murray, who have been vacationing in Minnesota and Canada for more than two weeks, are due to return home tomorrow. Their daughter, Miss Jean Murray, will be arriving this evening from

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should pour out two pounds of bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, sick and the world looks pink.

A more bowel movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." Harmless, gentle, yet amazing in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name. 25 cents. Stubbornly refuse anything else.

Protect Those Young Healthy Eyes With the RIGHT LIGHT!

Statistics of this modern age prove conclusively that poor light when studying causes many a youngster to be at the bottom of his class because of nervousness and fatigue brought on by eye strain. Prevent this with I. E. S. (or indirect lighting) lamps. These lamps have been recommended by school authorities for home studying.

We have many I. E. S. Lamps at prices no higher than ordinary lamps.

IMPROVEMENT IN BUSINESS CITED BY U. S. AGENCY

Claim Lost Ground Has Been Regained in Seven Weeks

Washington, Aug. 25—(AP)—Three Federal agencies offered today statistical evidence of substantial business improvement in recent weeks.

The Federal Reserve Board calculated the upswing in steel, textiles, petroleum, shoe and other industries had won back in the last seven weeks all the ground lost in the previous seven months.

At the treasury, a 25 per cent spurt in customs collections indicated to officials that conditions had improved to the point where purchases of foreign raw materials and other merchandise were affected.

The commerce department reported the first favorable turn in its index of national income in nearly a year. July income declined less than the usual seasonal amount, and the nation's income from wages, dividends and other sources was estimated at $35,300,000 for the first seven months of the year.

Statisticians Hopeful
Because this was not far from the $39,000,000,000 income in the similar portion of last year, statisticians indicated a belief that continued business improvement might bring the 1938 total close to last year's $69,300,000,000, which was the highest since 1929.

The reserve board said its index of industrial production rose from 77 per cent of the 1923-25 average in June to 83 per cent in July and gained further in the first three weeks of August.

Senator Brown, (D-Mich.), discussing the relation of business to government, predicted a substantial influx of capital into productive enterprise would follow enactment of a law permitting Federal and state taxation of incomes from all governmental securities and salaries.

Brown, chairman of a Senate subcommittee studying tax exempt securities, indicated the group would recommend passage of such a law by the next Congress, in line with President Roosevelt's recommendations last year.

The proposed bill, he explained, would bring into the taxing field about $60,000,000,000 in Federal and state obligations which now are wholly or partly exempt.

A pair of birds representing an unknown species, the Congo peacock, were "discovered" in a Belgian museum 35 years after they were mounted and placed there. Until 1937, they were thought to be "common peafowl."

It took Holland 50 years to recover completely from the "great tulip mania" of the 17th century, during which speculators paid as high as $2500 for a single tulip bulb.

Bread is not thrown away by any true Moslem. Found on the ground, clean pieces of bread are eaten; soiled bread must either be burnt or given to a cat or dog.

HEAR REPORTS ON BOY SCOUTING AT ROCHELLE DINNER

Eighteen Members of the Ogle County District
Attend Meeting

Eighteen members of the Ogle county district Boy Scout committee enjoyed a very fine dinner at the Hotel Collier in Rochelle Tuesday evening following which they heard reports of the activities of the various troops and packs in the district and discussed plans for Scouting and Cubbing activities for the coming months. Those present were: O. A. Hanke, district chairman; C. C. Findlay, district commissioner; Harold Patterson, chairman of activities and civic service; Rev. W. C. Manney, troop committee chairman and member of district advancement committee; Dale Lizer, troop committee man, all of Mt. Morris. From Oregon were Frank Einsweiler, chairman of district campaign committee and chairman of local pack committee; W. N. Lockwood, neighborhood commissioner and chairman of district organization committee; Fred Douth, scoutmaster; and William Jones, junior assistant scoutmaster.

Rochelle Delegation
The Rochelle delegation was made up of William Hunt, chairman of the Rochelle city committee and chairman of senior scout committee for district; Steven Helfer, chairman of committee on ten year program and also member of district advancement committee; William Hayes, member of Rochelle city committee; A. H. Maginnis, neighborhood commissioner; Dr. Motlong, member of Rochelle city committee; and Bill Parson, scoutmaster of Troop 83 of Rochelle. In addition to the above were a scoutmaster from the state of Ohio as a visitor, A. A. Stocker, chief executive of the Blackhawk Area Council, and E. A. Rowley, field executive for Lee and Ogle districts.

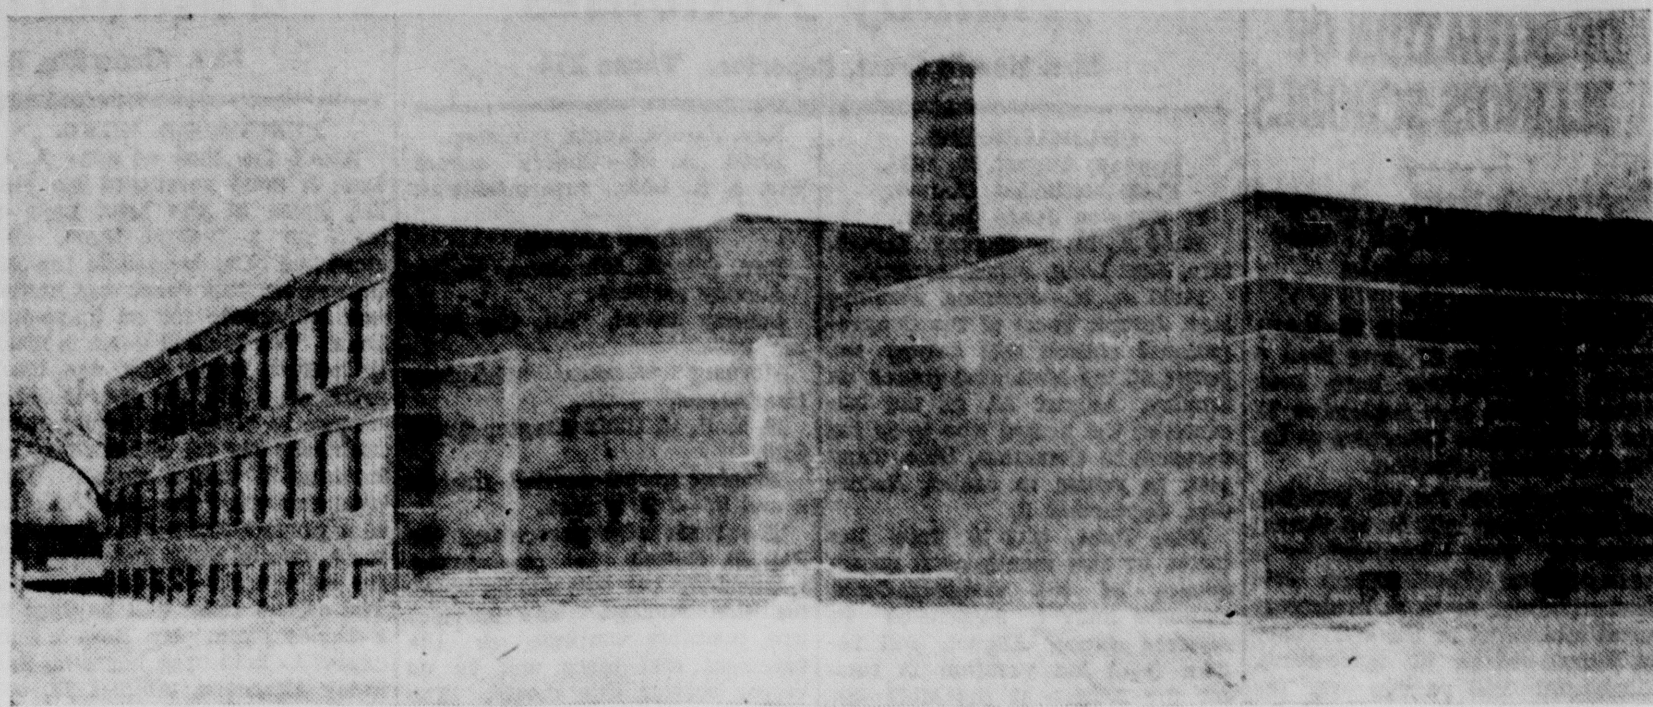

Reports of the various units in the district show an increased amount of activity over a year ago. Membership figures indicate that at present the district is within 25 Scouts of reaching its goal for December 31 of this year. The cub membership has exceeded the goal set for December 31 by eight boys.

Plans Discussed
Plans for the coming few months include the reorganization of scout troops at Byron, Forreston, Davis Junction and Stillman Valley. A cub pack is to be organized in Rochelle as soon as possible after school has started. Definite plans are being made for training courses for leaders. A course known as "An Introduction to Scouting" consisting of four sessions is to be started in Rochelle about the third week in September to continue for four weeks. This same course is to be started in Mt. Morris at about the same time for men from Forreston, Polo, Oregon, Byron, Mt. Morris and any other communities in the west end of the district that wish to participate. These courses are to be followed by another one in "The Elements of Troop Leadership" which will be held in various places in the district. W. L. Pickering, county superintendent of schools, is chairman of the training committee and will be responsible for the organization of the above mentioned training courses.

Nominating Committee
The following three men were appointed to the nominating committee: Frank Einsweiler of Oregon, chairman; William Hayes of Rochelle and Harold Patterson of Mount Morris. This committee will make nominations for all officers of the district committee for the coming year, 1939, and report at the next meeting which will be October 18.

Finance plans for this fall were discussed and it was decided that campaigns would be put on in all towns having scouting. Mt. Morris is at present in the community chest and Oregon and Rochelle are organizing them in their communities and scouting will be included in their campaign. All of these are anticipating drives during the month of November which is the national community chest campaign month.

New Lincoln Grade School in West End

West Brooklyn

SCHOOL TO OPEN.

The local public school will open Monday, Aug. 29th. Registration will be Monday morning at 9 o'clock for the high school students. Miss Marjorie Rowe, of Elgin, a graduate of Northern Illinois State Teachers college at DeKalb, will be the new high school teacher. She will teach English and typing, along with girls' physical education, dramatics and speech. Miss Rowe is a well qualified young lady, being a member of Pi Kappa Delta, National Honorary Forensic fraternity. In addition to the regular subjects offered in the high school, they will offer two years of typing and courses in general business and American history. The school is going to cooperate with the State Highway department by offering a course in safety education. This course carries a half unit of credit.

Miss Lolita Koehler will be the teacher in the grade room. In view of the fine repairs made on the building the school board is looking forward to a very successful year.

FORMER TEACHER WEDS.

Miss June Trotter, former West Brooklyn teacher and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Trotter of LaGrange and Edward Barrows of Sycamore, were married in Chicago on last Wednesday. The ceremony took place in the Chicago temple with Dr. Thompson officiating at the service.

Miss Anita Trotter of LaGrange attended her sister, and William B. Conner of Rockford was best man for Mr. Barrows. They will make their home in Rock Island where the bridegroom is employed as county supervisor for the National Youth Administration.

SUNDAY GUESTS.

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Amil Frank Meeks of Amboy, Dr. J. A. Zwiler, daughter Mary Ellen, and Mrs. Ellen Zwiler of Kanakake, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Blei of LaSalle, Helen Meeks, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. the local boys for plane rides Sunday in his Stinson.

Bob Gilbert flew to Polo Sunday morning in the Aces Cub.

INDIGNANT WIVES

MAY PICKET HUSBANDS

Calcutta (AP)—A number of women of Sadhaura, in the Punjab, have decided that one wife is enough for their husbands.

They have formed themselves into a "monogamy brigade" to force their husbands not to take second wives.

Should normal persuasion fail, peaceful picketing of the "pandal"—the tent where the second marriage takes place—will be resorted to.

Finally, the weapon of social boycott will be used.

The old-time "prison crop" has been abolished in British prisons and prisoners now are allowed to have safety razors so that they can shave when they wish.

By MAX SALTSMARSH

THE CHARACTERS

Hugo Stern, handsome author, living on the French Riviera.
Archie Lumsden, myself, Hugo's friend.
Ottile Wills, a beautiful American actress.

Yesterday: To investigate the chateau la Vague I take a room there. Back at Hugo's, Dunning finds the murder gun planted in my bed.

Chapter 16

Breaking The Bad News

Penelope came flying. "Monsieur!" she gasped. "The police!" "Show them in," said Hugo gravely, but even as he spoke, Dunning caught me by the arm.

"That letter from the girl—where is it? In your pocket?" I nodded. The letter had never left my person since I had received it the night before, and now I pulled it out and showed it to him. He snatched it and thrust it to him. He pulled it out and showed it to him.

"I don't know which would be worst to have found on you—that or the gun," said he. "But never fear—you'll have them back very shortly."

The large shape of the chief of police, with three uniformed gendarmes behind him, darkened the doorway. "Monsieur," he said, with a formal bow to Hugo, and with so much dignity that I guessed he was feeling desperately uncomfortable. "I regret that it is my painful duty to make a search of your house. Information has been received—" He broke off suddenly. "Monsieur Dunning!" he exclaimed, startled. "One had not expected to find you here!"

"Monsieur Thiers," said the big man solemnly, "each one of us must pursue his appointed task. I wish you better luck in yours than I've had in mine!" And with a stupefied sense of immense relief I saw him saunter across the courtyard and through the open gate. Next moment the sound of an aged motor starting up told me that the Fiat was bearing evidence that might have been my death-warrant away to Cannes.

Hugo was facing the commissaire with no very welcoming expression on his face. "I don't understand you, Thiers," he said sharply. "Are you trying to say you've got a search-warrant?"

The chief of police wriggled unhappily. "It is indeed so, Monsieur Stern," he agreed. "Certain information reached us this morning that made such a course inevitable, but it is a pure formality. I assure you!" But his action belied his words, for as he spoke he turned suddenly to me and ran his hands over my body in a very workmanlike manner.

I was wearing nothing but a shirt and trousers, so that the inspection was both easy and short, and with a muttered word of apology and a visible reddening of the neck, he turned his attention to Hugo. "Their's said Hugo sternly, making, however, no attempt at resistance, 'I warn you that this stupidity may have serious consequences for you. I have friends in Paris who will not be pleased to hear about it.'"

The fat man set his jaw obstinately. "Monsieur," he said, with a certain dignity, "I am carrying out the orders of the examining magistrate. And besides," he added hopefully, "we have yet to search the house."

And search the house they did, with a thoroughness that filled me with a reluctant admiration. When it was over, Hugo moved to the front door and held it open.

"I shall just have time to catch the Paris mail," he remarked stonily, disregarding the commissaire's proffered hand. The fat man wiped his perspiring forehead. "Monsieur Stern," he said, unhappily, "will you not accept truce for a little matter of a day or two? Give us time to find the real criminal, and perhaps then the letter will not be necessary?"

Hugo stared at him coldly, but the twitching of his mouth told me that he was secretly amused. "On one condition," he said. "Tell us what it was that you expected to find, and who it was that told you you would find it."

"Monsieur," said the commissaire miserably, "we did not find the gun, therefore I can say nothing, and as for our informant—he is the friend of Monsieur le Juge, and I dare not mention his name." And having thus given a satisfactory answer on both heads, he ambled after his men out through the gate.

As the Hispano pulled up on the little front of Juan-les-Pins, Hugo looked at his wristwatch. "A quarter to twelve," he said. "Just time for a swim before Ottile Wills shows up." He led the way along the boardwalk.

Taking off his robe and watch, he took a running jump into the water and I followed him, swimming out in his wake till we were clear of the crowd by the shore.

"Let's hope the lady will be late," said I, turning on my back and floating in luxurious idleness, but next moment I exclaimed: "Devil take it, there she is!" And there, sure enough, she was, a slim, graceful creature in dark-blue pajamas, watching us from the water's edge.

We came out of the water at her feet, shaking ourselves like a couple of dripping spaniels and brushing the wet hair from our eyes, and she laughed down at us, her black eyes dancing, a very gay and pretty sight.

"Never," she said, "have I seen such brown and muscle outside the life-savers at Atlantic City! I am honored to be escorted by the two huskiest men on the beach. Gentlemen, the top of the morning to you!"

Hugo reddened. "Miss Wills," he began formally, "I have a good deal to say to you, and this beach is a trifle crowded. Will you try some lunch at the hotel cafe?" She nodded cheerfully, falling in step between us as we made our way along the boardwalk. "But there's just one point," she observed. "You know my name, but I don't know yours."

Hugo drew out a chair for her. "That's easily remedied," he answered, still with a certain constraint in his manner. "I am Hugo Stern, and this is my friend Archie Lumsden."

She explained sharply. "Hugo Stern? Why, you're not Hugo Stern the author? I think your books are wonderful, but your heroines are terrible! Your contempt for my sex is spoiling your work. You'll never achieve true balance until you make your heroine a real, human woman. Take any girl you know and study her actions and reactions. Take me, if you like—I'm an ordinary, completely healthy, averagely intelligent female—unpick me, turn me inside out, and see what I'm made of. Then write your next book, and it'll be a classic."

"I am honored," said Hugo gravely, "but I'm afraid our time is too short. Now, if you're ready, Miss Wills, I think we ought to get down to business."

"I'm a Moral Coward!" In one moment all the youth and gaiety drained from her face. She looked down, shading her eyes, and I noticed that the curling lashes that veiled them were chestnut-red and fiery-tipped like her hair. "You had better know at once," she said, very low, "that I'm a moral coward. I've been fooling up to now, putting off time, trying to avoid hearing what I was afraid to hear. But I guess I'll have to face it. Mr. Stern, where did you get that one-cent piece?"

"Just a minute," said Hugo. His face, too, was white under the tan, and the lines of his jaw were set. "There are one or two names that I want to mention to you before we start any explanations. I am aware that you know Baron Stahl, but I should like to hear if you have met a certain Mr. Verner, a banker, and a gentleman who calls himself Vladimir Rakovsky?" She looked up at him quickly, a hint of fear in her eyes, and slowly inclined her head. "I have never met them," she answered, "but I know them by name."

"And Monsieur Rene Geiss?" pursued Hugo, his eyes never leaving her face. "You probably know him better as Shevr, the cartoonist."

"Shevr?" she echoed. "Why, of course I've heard of him, but I'm happy to say I've never met him, and I hope I never will. His work makes me sick!"

"And now one last name, Miss Wills, have you ever heard of Pat O'Donnell?"

At once light and color flashed back into her face. "Pat?" she cried. "Do you know him?" "Oh, where is he, Mr. Stern? Is he here in Juan?"

He shook his head. "We'll come to that later," he told her gently. "Now for the immediate business."

He pulled his wallet from the pocket of his bath-robe, extracted the one-cent piece, and laid it on the table between them, and at once she fumbled in the depths of her big blue satchel and produced its twin.

"I'll match you, Mr. Stern," she said with an attempt at a smile, but I saw that her lips were trembling. "My uncle gave these coins to my sister and me when we were little girls as a reward for good conduct."

Hugo nodded slowly. "I'll match your story in turn," he said. "Your sister's coin was given to me by the waitress of a small cafe. It had been left there two days ago by a young lady calling herself

Eve Monet. Miss Wills, does that name convey anything to you?"

She shook her head dumbly, her eyes imploring him to go on, but he turned suddenly to me. "I can't do it, Archie," he said harshly. "You must carry on."

I had no more liking than he for the task ahead, but to delay longer would be like leaving a dumb animal in torture. I leaned across the table and gripped her hands. "Miss Wills," I said, as gently as I could, "Eve Monet was the mannequin who was shot down by an unknown man at Palm Beach two nights ago, and we have reason to believe she was your sister." ## Heifers Tempted by Lucious Corn: Much Confusion is Result Joliet, Ill., Aug. 25.—(AP)—Separating the pastures on the George Attaway and Charles Sweetner farms near Elwood is a field of luscious, tempting corn. Ten heifers on the Attaway farm viewed the inviting stalks, pushed down a fence and lumbered in. So did five heifers on the Sweetner farm.

James W. Tyler and Al Miller, who owned the cattle, tried to separate them. But in the confusion, the heifers pushed down more fences and escaped over the high-walls.

Four owned by Tyler were recovered, two were killed by trucks and nine were unaccounted for. The owners hired several boys for a roundup today.

Water is the basis of the metric system of weights, one cubic centimeter of water at 39.2 degrees Fahrenheit being one gram of weight.

SAYS PRESIDENT MUST HAVE HAD TONGUE IN CHEEK

Hamilton Takes Notice of President's Remarks About Primaries

Washington, Aug. 25.—(AP)—Republican Chairman John Hamilton contends that President Roosevelt "must have had his tongue in his cheek" when he criticized Republican participation in Democratic primaries. Issuing a statement shortly after two Democratic senators—Brown of Michigan and Sheppard of Texas—had expressed agreement with the president's comment, Hamilton said last night: "Taken seriously, Mr. Roosevelt's remarks constitute an indictment of the election laws of a number of sovereign states. "If Republicans have or intend to participate in Democratic primaries—and there is no conclusive proof that they have or so intend—it has been and will be in accordance with the provisions of state laws." The president's denunciation of the crossing of party lines in primaries was provoked by the Idaho Democratic primary, in which Senator James P. Pope lost to Rep. D. Worth Clark, a self-styled conservative. Friends of Pope, a New Dealer, declared many Republicans voted for Clark. Pope is considering running as an independent in November. The question of whether the Democratic senatorial campaign committee would support Clark against Pope was put yesterday to Senator Brown, its chairman. He replied that the committee would support the regular party nominee in any state unless "strong evidence" showed fundamental wrongs in primary procedure. Brown announced the committee would take part in campaigns in middle west and northeastern states. He named Iowa, Indiana, Illinois, Ohio, Pennsylvania, New York and New Hampshire as "close states" on which it would concentrate.

FARLEY SUMMONED. Hyde Park, N. Y., Aug. 25.—(AP)—President Roosevelt called James A. Farley for a conference which may result in an intensified administration drive to defeat anti-New Deal Democrats in congress.

The Roosevelt-Farley talk, scheduled for sometime today or tomorrow, was considered one of the most politically important moves of the president's stay here. Roosevelt presumably wanted to talk with his political generalissimo about campaign developments in a half dozen states. Farley's advice was expected to determine in part whether the president will make a personal bid in Maryland for the defeat of Senator Millard Tydings, an aggressive foe of the administration.

Also among probable topics of conversation between the two were the political situations in New York, Idaho, Georgia, South Carolina and Connecticut.

There has been general speculation regarding Farley's attitude toward Roosevelt's proposed "purge" of anti-administration Democrats.

WANTS INFORMATION. The projected conference between the chief executive and his postmaster-general was expected to clarify Farley's stand.

Roosevelt presumably wanted information from Farley as to what the administration might accomplish in states now politically questionable.

In Idaho, the chief executive's problem is whether to throw administration support behind Senator James P. Pope if the latter, defeated in the Democratic primary, should run for re-election as an independent.

The New York situation involves the question of whether Roosevelt should support Governor Herbert Lehman for the senate.

Also, the president apparently wanted to talk with Farley about the renomination race of Representative John O'Connor (D-N.Y.), whom Roosevelt has called "one of the most effective obstructionist in the lower house."

Farley presumably was to be consulted on the relative strength of Governor Olin D. Johnston, an administration supporter, and Senator E. D. Smith, a New Deal opponent, in the South Carolina senatorial primary.

The president and his postmaster-general were expected to discuss the general situation in Georgia and Connecticut, where primaries still are to be held.

Rochelle—Hubert White of Rochelle, who was married Saturday to Miss Beebe Bannister of DeKalb, was arrested on a reckless driving charge shortly after the ceremony as a result of two accidents on U. S. highway 330.

White's machine first collided with a hayrack three miles east of Malta, the wagon being demolished. Later, as White was driving east on the highway, his car collided with a machine driven by William L. Blake of Chicago. Although the occupants escaped injury, both cars were badly damaged.

BUSINESS IS CLOSED

So that member firms and employees may enjoy the Farmers' picnic Thursday, August 25, the retail committee of the Chamber of Commerce voted for an 11 a. m. closing hour for that day. This will give an opportunity to all to make their purchases and to meet their friends at the picnic for the day's activities.

AGENTS HAD MEET

Full time insurance agents who are members of the Chamber of Commerce met in the Chamber of Commerce rooms Tuesday night and formed the Rochelle Insurance Board outlining the plan of organization and a code of ethics pertaining to the profession.

KINDERGARTEN OPENS

The Happy Hour Kindergarten will open Tuesday, September 6, at 319 Sixth avenue under the direction of Mrs. John Carlson. Youngsters that are 5 years old and will be five are eligible. Hours are from 9 to 11, and transportation will be furnished.

SPONSOR LUNCHEON

The Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist church will sponsor a one-o'clock luncheon at the Methodist church on Tuesday.

Sept. 6. The society invites friends to the luncheon and program which marks the opening of the year. Mrs. Nellie Lindsay is president of the group.

TO GIVE RECITAL

The many people that have heard Willis Charkovsky in any of his recitals here in this city will be pleased to learn that he is returning Monday evening, August 29, to take part in a two piano recital at the high school auditorium.

Sharing the program with him is Leonid Hambro, who was a child prodigy pupil of Howard Wells and is at the present time a holder of a fellowship with the Juilliard Foundation in New York City.

These two young men joined talents in two piano team work two years ago largely for their own private enjoyment. They have played on several occasions for private recitals on the north side in Chicago and met with splendid success.

The program will feature two of Mr. Charkovsky's piano compositions.

Four weeks ago he completed two more suites for two pianos so the program will include at least two numbers that have never been presented publicly before.

The first half of the program will be divided by the two soloists. Mr. Charkovsky will play several of the numbers scheduled for his professional debut recital October 25 at Kimball Hall, Chicago, under the direction of Bertha Ott.

The program is being sponsored solely for those interested in music. The entire proceeds will be shared by the artists.

RETURN FROM TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Downer have returned from their motor trip to the Black Hills which they made in their new automobile.

CO. SUPT. SENDS MESSAGE TO LEE COUNTY'S PUPILS

L. W. Miller Urges All to Give Honest Effort to Their Studies

L. W. Miller, county superintendent of schools for 28 years, who will voluntarily retire from the educational field at the end of his present term, after having completed a record in that office to which he may rightfully look with pride and satisfaction, today sends this message to the pupils of Lee county:

Speedily, indeed, have the days home driving the northern part of Colorado, Kansas, Missouri and entering good old Illinois. The crops were good through Colorado. They irrigate and the wheat crops were very good. The cherries were ripe and the apple trees were loaded with apples.

As we entered Illinois the crops began to look better and everyone was glad to go and glad to get back home.

HOSPITAL NOTES.

Miss Dorothy Marksbury of Mendota, who underwent an appendectomy operation Tuesday was able to return to her home Monday morning.

Miss Lucille McCann was taken to her home at Steward Friday. Raymond Montavon was admitted to the hospital with an infection or carbuncle on his jaw.

Orin Thompson is recovering nicely from his operation for appendicitis.

Albert Bauer was brought to the hospital Monday morning with a severe attack of acute appendicitis. It will be some time before he will be able to resume work.

Miss Verna Peterson returned to her home in Dixon from being employed in the hospital.

Mrs. Joe Kaufman has so far recovered from her recent illness that she was able to go to northern Wisconsin for the relief of hay fever.

Leo Eggers received an injury to his hand Wednesday.

Raymond Montavon, who suffered a fourteen-inch wire cut in his left arm Monday evening while searching for the Bradley boy at the Bernard Eden home was treated at the hospital.

Dr. S. C. Fleming, Dr. Chester Carnahan of Paw Paw and Dr. E. S. Murphy of Dixon were callers at the hospital during the past week.

LADIES AID MET.

The August meeting of the Compton Ladies Aid was held at the church Wednesday afternoon with a large attendance.

The meeting opened with singing and the regular business. Mrs. Thompson held a bible quiz, then it was disclosed who the secret friends were, each receiving a gift from their friend.

The tables were decorated for the second anniversary of the friendship and the four seasons. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Laura Beemer, Mrs. Cora Beemer, Mrs. Olla Donagh, Mrs. Anna Pettys, Mrs. L. H. Lutz, Mrs. Helen Pool, Mrs. Cecil Johnson and Mrs. Eva McCann.

passed since the "Last Day of School" in the spring of 1938, when a year of school was completed—a year that passed into the twilight of the years—never to return.

Although not voiced in poetic meter, the sentiment of the following lines have gripped the heart strings of literally hundreds, if not thousands, of those fine and splendid youthful citizens as they stood for the last time of the year beside their desks at final dismissal time, ready to depart, books in hand:

"Good-bye, little desk at school, good-bye;

We're off to the woods, and the clear blue sky.

The bells of the brooks and the woodland bells.

Are calling us out to the daisies and dells.

But we'll come back in the fall, you know,

As glad to come as we are to go. With ever a laugh and never a sigh.

Good-bye, little desk at school, good-bye."

Soon, now, we shall be going back to school. A new year will begin, and I am certain that you look forward to making this year the best school year you have ever known. Life's finest asset is its memories. Build toward that end, ever and always. Since we live by the tick of the clock, only one tick at a time, this matter is under the positive control of each of us. It can be done.

It is only just and fair that we ask and urge that you do the best you can do, within reason, under the conditions that confront you. A respect for honest endeavor is always dignified, and will remain so for you so long as you live.

How I wish that you might enter school without fear, and without worry! Courtesy and respect toward teacher and classmates cost so little and mean so much. I know that you will continue to be thoughtful about this, and all else contained in this writing, and that your school year and years may yield pleasure and satisfaction to each and every one of you.

When school days are all over, and you make your home in the community of your choice, I know of nothing finer than that you be well thought of, and be esteemed as a respected citizen. Then it will be that your dreams come true. This is written by one who will always cherish his happy associations with you, and remember you pleasantly.

The major objective of our schools is the proportion of good citizenship.

Your friend,
L. W. MILLER.

DIXON BASEBALL FANS TO ATTEND A DOUBLEHEADER

Twin Bill Arranged for Reynolds Field on Sunday Afternoon

There's a doubleheader on deck for the Dixon baseball fans here Sunday afternoon at Reynolds field. For the first game Pete Phalen, athletic director of the Dixon American Legion Post No. 12, has arranged a game with Sterling. This game will show the local fans what the youngsters have done in baseball under the wings of the Legion.

The game between the Knacks and Oglesby has been called off by the Oglesby club has to play in a tournament in Rockford. The games at Rockford were rained out last Saturday and thus forcing Oglesby to play this Sunday.

In place of the out-of-town team, Cummings had arranged a game with the Panthers, another local club which has been doing plenty well this season with ten straight wins.

Both Teams Claim Title

The Panthers claim they have the best team in town and the Knacks feel there is room for an argument on that score—so this should be a real game. This game was scheduled for September 11, but due to arrangements for the play-off of the Illinois State Baseball league's possible three-way tie, the game has been moved to an earlier date.

The Panthers have trounced rough shod over their opponents so far this year and they claim the Knacks are no different than any other of the teams they have defeated.

Jim Kupper or Louie Bevilacqua will be on the mound for the Panthers and George Wolford will be behind the plate. For the Dixon team the battery will be Ole Prestegard, who needs no introduction, and Windmiller.

It's American Legion Day at Reynolds field Sunday and a large crowd is expected to attend this tempting doubleheader dish.

Fred Tieman will be the umpire behind the plate for the Panthers vs. Knacks game and the first game is scheduled to start at 1:30.

Puerto Rican May Make Bid for Title

New York, Aug. 25.—(AP)—Pedro Montanez, the Puerto Rican lightweight who never lost a bout in the United States until he tried to lift the championship from Lou Ambers last year, apparently isn't going to let that one defeat discourage him.

Last night he proved he's fit once more, and ready to make a bid for the title now held by Henry Armstrong, when he scored a five-round technical knockout over Orville Drouillard, a rather hardy customer from Windsor, Ont.

The average Philippine mahogany tree stands 100 to 175 feet in height, and rises to between 40 and 75 feet, straight from the ground, before reaching the first limbs.

"HIS ANGEL" HE CALLED HER SHE'D SNUG HIM, THE TEASE HE WORE OUT HIS PANTS GETTING DOWN ON HIS KNEES; ON A HOT SUMMER DAY, SHE AT LAST TOOK HIM UP, WHEN HE SAID "COMON, BABY, LET'S HAVE 7UP"

WHAT'S YOUR GOODWILL WORTH?

When you ask for 7-Up, you naturally expect a delightful "fresh-up" drink. And if you get real 7-Up, you get exactly what you expect. But there are many imitations that LOOK like 7-Up—some with names that SOUND like 7-Up. Dealers who care more for unfair profits than pleased patrons will sometimes tell you that these imitations are just as good as real 7-Up. But don't let anybody fool you. The only drink that's just as good as real 7-Up is the real 7-Up bottle like the one pictured here—and it's waiting for you now at good dealers everywhere.

PLUM HOLLOW'S STAG.
Ralph Clark is the chairman for the stag party being planned for next Thursday afternoon and evening at the Plum Hollow golf course. Ted Talty is in charge of the golf events and prizes will be awarded. Refreshments haven't been forgotten.

ROCHELLE'S DAY.
Today is the big day at Rochelle with the Farmers' picnic and the featured West Brooklyn vs. Rochelle baseball game. Bert Cummings will be one of the umpires for the game. Both teams are members of the Illinois State Baseball league.

IT'S IN THE AIR.
The crispness of this morning gave thoughts of the coming football season and it was noted too, that posters heralding the event have made their appearance in several of the downtown windows. The University of Illinois has started to distribute its show cards to remind you of the approaching kick-off. At the university's ticket office Manager C. E. Bowen's staff is preparing to mail gridiron information and application blanks to some 36,000 persons—many of them in Dixon.

CAMERA FANS.
Photography is a sport in itself—and has an increasingly large number of fans. There's an uncertainty about snapping them just as there is doubt about the outcome of any other kind of sport. Dixon has its fans and a healthy turnout was witnessed at the dropping of the second span of the Galena avenue bridge this morning. As early as 6:30 the boys with the films began to appear and there was an assortment from box cameras to movie reels. You just have to wait around for the score, however, and can't do much about it.

WHO SAID WEAKER SEX?
If you fellows hear a prowler in the house early tomorrow morning—just roll over and go back to sleep; it will be only sister or wifey snatching a light breakfast before dashing off to the links. The ladies of the Dixon Country club are planning a dawn-to-dusk golf marathon for tomorrow. No fellow in Chicago is going to show the Dixon golf women what is what—no, sir! Prizes will be awarded for the most series of nine holes and lowest putts for 36 holes. All girls over 65 are said to be disqualified and other golfers are asked to grant right-of-way to the endurance players. Among those who have entered thus far are: Mrs. George Beier, Mrs. Floyd Chapman, Miss Catherine Buchner, Mrs. Carl Buchner, Mrs. Harold Cobb, Miss Elsie Neff and Mrs. Robert Brewster. What do you plan for Friday, gals?

Curt Davis, Cardinals—Handcuffed Dodgers with one hit for 5-0 win.
Bruce Campbell, Indians—His two homers drove in three runs in 5-3 victory over Red Sox.
Pep Young, Pirates—Tripled with bases loaded to spark winning rally in 6-2 defeat of Bees.
Wally Moses and George Caster, Athletics—Moses hit three triples and three singles in doubleheader win over Tigers. Caster pitched five-hitter for 11-2 nightcap decision.
Vance Page, Cubs—Beat Giants 6-1, with four hits.
Jimmy Dykes, White Sox, and Tommy Henrich and Monte Pearson, Yankees—Dykes hit homer and two singles, driving in four runs in 8-5 opener win; Henrich hit two homers and Pearson pitched five-hitter in 11-1 nightcap.
Jim Weaver, Reds—Held Phils to one run and five hits in seven-inning relief trick to save a 3-1 victory.
Ken Chase, Senators—Pitched two runless-hitless innings to stop Browns' late rally as Senators won, 8-6.

PENNANT VICTORY HAS THE PIRATES SCARED TO DEATH

Fear Prospect of Tangle With Those Awful Yank Boys in Series

By SID FEDER Associated Press Sports Writer

The fearsome prospect of having to tangle with those awful Yankees in another World Series appears to have the National League's leading citizens scared to death of winning their own pennant.

At least, that's the way the current senior circuit looks (if you can call it that) race, what with the Pirates having a tough time scratching an even .500 average in their last 20 games, the Giants winning just 13 of the last 27, and those Chicago Cubs playing seventh-place ball for the past month.

In fact, the way the favorites have been doing their darndest to kick their chances away, only Frankie Frisch's collapsible Cardinals and Will McKechnie's Raw Reds appear to have serious designs on the flag.

No Chance For Sidelists
As matters have been progressing, however, the Pirates won't have much chance to sidestep during the closing drive. They trounced the Boston Bees, 6-2, yesterday, largely through Pep Young's triple with the bases loaded. Although that was only their seventh win in 15 times out, it boosted their first-place margin to six full games.

At that rate, it would appear Pie Traynor's crew will get the pennant whether it wants to or not, for, based on the traditional minimum of 94 victories for a pennant winner, the Bucs now are in a spot where they can play less than 600 ball, while their closest rivals must tear along at 750 or better to catch up.

Of course, the Cardinals can pretty well be counted on now, 18 full games behind the pace-setters. But with Lonnie Warneke's lanky arm moving the other ballgame down, the curt (Bargain Counter) Davis starting to click—as witness that one-hit 5-0 decision he posted against the Brooklyn Dodgers yesterday—only Frankie may still get his boys into the money.

The Reds are generally regarded as too young to stand the gaff of the stretch drive, but the fact that no other first division club has as good a record in the past month makes it barely possible they may come through. They chalked up their 17th win in 30 starts yesterday with a 3-1 victory over the futile Phillies.

Reds Near Second Place
Since Vance Page, the "old man" rookie, tossed a four-hitter to give the Cubs a 6-1 win over the Giants, this left the Reds just half a game out of second place.

Its just about certain the National League winner will meet up with the Yankees in the extra-curricular clouting. Gehrig and company split with the Chicago White Sox yesterday to climb 12 full games in front in the American League frolics. Jimmy Dykes' three-run homer paced the Sox to an 8-5 opener win, and Tommy Henrich's two homers gave the Yankees the afterpiece 11-1.

Three changes in the brackets featured the junior circuit program. Cleveland's Indians climbed into a second place tie by topping the Boston Red Sox, 5-3, on Bruce Campbell's two homers. Washington regained sole possession of fourth place with a close 8-6 edge over the St. Louis Browns, and the Athletics pulled themselves out of the cellar with a lopsided double win over Detroit, 10-5 and 11-1.

Dick Riffe Burns Up Turf in Pigskin Victory at Temple

Philadelphia, Aug. 25.—(AP)—Little All-American Dick Riffe promises to be a big All-American in the National Professional football league this year.
The elusive lad who "burned up" eastern Pennsylvania gridirons while a halfback at Albright college the last three years, made his professional debut in impressive style last night as he sparked the Philadelphia Eagles to a 14 to 7 victory over the Eastern College All-Stars at Temple stadium.
"Dashing Dick" personally accounted for the winning touchdown with an 80-yard run in the third period. Taking the ball on his own 20, Riffe slid off tackle, squirmed and wiggled his way 20 yards into the open, then reversed his field and tore down the sidelines.

New York, Aug. 25.—(AP)—Old Tony Canzoneri is working out daily in a gym here and friends are afraid he is going to try to come back. Charlie Comiskey, 12-year-old son of the White Sox owner, is making the eastern swing with the Sox. He puts on a uniform, sits on the bench and is having the very devil of a time finding his way around. Jim Braddock's spot at 10:30 last night, mom. The Yanks say the reason you don't see more of Red Rolfe (He's just one of the two best third sackers in the majors) in the headlines is because Red is strictly a team man.

Tommy Farr isn't booked to fight anybody, he isn't even in training, but his fan mail averages 400 letters per week, most of them asking for photos. The Cardinal front office (Breadon & Rickey) is said to have a mild feud on, while Frankie Frisch will get a new contract. Breadon is pro and Rickey anti. Henry Armstrong is the world's welterweight champion, but can't fight over-the-weight bouts in that division because he can't build up to 148 pounds to save his life. Note to Mel Harder: Joe DiMaggio says you give him more trouble than any other chucker in the American League.

Lou Ambers' fine stand against Armstrong won him a flood of offers from all over the country and Lou will go barnstorming. Several American League clubs are outbidding the Yanks, but the McCarthys have scored over 100 more runs than any other team in the loop and have batted in a hundred more. "The answer to that is easy," says Joe DiMaggio. "We hit the long ones." Max Schmeling really intends to come back here and have another try for the heavyweight title. Biggest trader on the winter baseball market probably will be Gabby Hartnett of the Cubs who is just ready to clean house.

Put down those Cardinals for the prize nose dive of the season. Everyone expected them to be bad, but not quite that bad. Jim Braddock is booked solid for refereeing dates in September.

TENNIS STARS GET RUSTY IN 3-DAY LAYOFF

Brookline, Mass., Aug. 25.—(AP)—Convinced too much idleness rusts champions, Alice Marble and Mrs. Sarah Palfrey Babyan, defending titlists in the women's division of the national doubles tennis tournament at Longwood, today seized the opportunity to become its first 1938 finalists.

Sideline three days by the Sabbath, a bye and a default, Miss Marble and Mrs. Babyan were so unsteady and timid when they resumed action yesterday that they played tag with defeat much too long for comfort before gaining the semi-finals by barely topping Mme. Sylvia Henroti of France and Mrs. Dorothy Andrus of New York, 6-4, 5-7, 12-10.

With that stiff match behind them, Miss Marble and Mrs. Babyan were expected to be in form today for their immediate rivals Kay Stammers and Margot Lunb of England, who had great difficulty gaining victory over Mrs. Harry Hopman and Dorothy Stevenson of Australia, in another of the four women's quarter-finals yesterday.

The men's field will come to the second last stage today by running off the two remaining quarter-finals matches. Adrian Quist and Jack Bromwich of Australia will oppose Gardner Mulloy of Miami and George Toley of Los Angeles, and another pair of Aussies, Harry Hopman and Leonard Schwartz, will take on Yvon Petra and Bernard Destremau of France.
Don Budge and Gene Mako defeated Russell Bobbitt of Atlanta, and Frank Guernsey of Orlando, Fla., 6-3, 6-2, 6-3, in one third-rounder yesterday, and in the other Wilmer Allison and Johnny Van Ryn gained their eighth national doubles semi-finals berth in 10 years, by overwhelming Pittsburgh and Bryan Grant, 6-1, 8-6, 6-2.

According to a British medical expert, crying is healthy because tears are the most powerful germ-killers in existence.

Youths Are Anything But Lost in Woods in Public Golf Fight

Cleveland, Aug. 25.—(AP)—They dubbed Bart Taro and Charles Lind the "Babes in the Woods" at the National Public Links Golf championship today—but the youngsters were far from being lost.

The two 16-year-old youths have shown they know their way around the tree-lined fairways of Highland Park course—know it so well, in fact, that they rated bright chances of taking another step toward the national daily fee course tourney title.

Taro, advancing through yesterday's first and second rounds with easy victories, opposed Lloyd Nordstrom, of Davenport, Iowa, as third round play opened today. Nordstrom yesterday eliminated the defending champion, Bruce McCormick of Los Angeles.

Alton Aye, of Louisville, Ky., who sent medalist Walter Burkemo, of Detroit, to the sidelines, was paired in an upper bracket match with Eddie Beck, of Portland, Ore.

Autumn is the driest season in the United States.

NUMBER OF SORE ARMS IS WORRY TO LEAGUE HEAD

Says Something Must Be Done to Preserve the Hurling Species

New York, Aug. 25.—(AP)—

What with the hospitals putting in special wings to take care of sore-arm pitchers who have fallen in line of duty, President Ford Frick of the National League thinks it high time something was done to preserve the species.

"It's got me worried," he admitted, "Something's got to be done to give the pitchers a better break, but I don't know exactly what the answer is yet."

The present season already has seen such mound stalwarts as Carl Hubbell, Dizzy Dean, Van Lingle Mungo, Lefty Grove, Hal Schumacher, Schoolboy Rowe, Tommy Bridges and Slick Castleman either carted off to the operating room or their efficiency so impaired that they are of little or no value to their clubs.

Bobby Feller and Cliff Melton, two of the game's most promising youngsters, have "lost" their fast ball. Johnny Vander Meer, after a sensational start, has lost the charm he held over the batters.

"It's The Lively Ball"

"It's the lively ball that's killing them off," said Frick. "Not a doubt of it. The pitcher is being forced to bear down on every throw, to punish his arm on every pitch. There's never a spot where he can ease up."

"I think we helped out National League pitchers a little by putting thicker covers and stitching on our balls this season, but it's not enough. What I would like to do is slow up the ball inside, really cut down on these cheap hits. The manufacturers, though, claim it can't be done, that if they take any life out of the 'inners' the ball will go soft and lopsided."

"That isn't the whole trouble, either. Did you realize we are throwing an average of 30 new balls into every game nowadays? That means—let's see—that a pitcher has to toss a slick, new ball an average of about every sixth pitch. Did you ever try to curve a new ball, right out of the box?"

"Used to be the two pitchers didn't have to handle more than a dozen balls a game. The umpire didn't throw a ball out just because it became a little discolored. Also, they were permitted to use spitters, emery balls and other deliveries that helped them."

EYSTON THINKS HE HAS HIT THE PEAK OF SPEED

Wendover, Utah, Aug. 25.—(AP)—The world's high speed king, Capt. George E. T. Eyston, of England, feels that at almost 360 miles an hour he virtually has reached the ceiling of speed on land.

His chief rival, John Cobb, also of London, holds however, that there is no limit to the rate of motion man can attain on the ground.

The lank, nervous Eyston, yesterday was officially timed at 347.16 miles an hour as he rocketed his Thunderbolt automobile through the measured mile on the Bonneville salt flats just east of here.

He admitted today dash-board instruments showed he hit "devilish close to 360" on the return through the mile when failure of an electric-eye timing device nullified his certain new record.

"I've figured it out scientifically," said Eyston, "and I don't think a land speed of much more than 360 miles an hour is possible."

Countered Cobb: "If you can get tires that will hold up, if mechanical engineering continues its remarkable development, and if you can get long enough straightaway courses, I don't think there's any limit to the speed man could travel."

Cobb, who is awaiting use of the salt flats for a record attempt in his turtle-shaped railton car, and Sir Malcolm Campbell of England are the only other men who have driven a car faster than 360 miles an hour.

Eyston's crew set to work grooming Thunderbolt for a new assault tentatively set for tomorrow.

SHERIFF'S SALE
By virtue of an alias execution and fee bill issued out of the Circuit Court of Lee County, Illinois on the 16th day of May A. D. 1938, at the instance of "Clarence Oberlander" now assigned to O. S. Hitcher, doing business as Central Finance Company, Plaintiff, and against Frank Fassig, Defendant, I did, on the 28th day of July A. D. 1938, levy on all the right, title, interest and claim of Frank Fassig in and to the following described real estate, to-wit:

The One-Half interest of Frank Fassig in and to the East Half (E 1/2) of the Northwest Quarter (NW 1/4) of Section Seventeen (17); the Southwest Quarter (SW 1/4) of the Northeast Quarter (NE 1/4) of Section Seventeen (17) and the West Half (W 1/2) of the Southwest Quarter (SW 1/4) of Section Seventeen (17) all in Township Thirty-seven (37) North, Range One (1) East of the Third Principal Meridian, situated in the County of Lee and State of Illinois, subject to the life estate of Eva Fassig.

And I hereby give notice that by virtue of the power in me vested by the said execution and fee bill, I shall on Saturday the 17th day of September A. D. 1938, at Ten o'clock A. M., offer for sale at the north door of the Court House in Dixon, in said County, the above described real estate to satisfy the said execution and fee bill.

Dated at Dixon, Lee County, Illinois this 24th day of August A. D. 1938.
WARD T. MILLER, Sheriff
W. F. Holmes, Attorney for Plaintiff.

HOPES FADE FOR PEACE IN NORTH SHORE'S STRIKE

Chicago, Aug. 25.—(AP)—Hopes for immediate settlement of the Chicago, North Shore and Milwaukee Railroad strike diminished today after rejection of an agreement proposed by the electric line.

Martin P. Durkin, director of the Illinois department of labor, said the road offered to resume operations—suspended since August 16—if employees would accept 85 per cent of their former wages in cash and 15 per cent in receiver's certificates.

Employees of the line, which is in Federal receivership, quit work in protest against a 15 per cent wage cut, and the road's refusal to arbitrate.

Durkin said the road's offer was rejected by Robert Armstrong, international secretary of the Amalgamated Association of Street Electric Railway and Motor Coach Employees.

The conciliator said the proposed agreement called for payment of wages in cash and certificates for a 90-day period during which a one-year contract would be negotiated.

DEAFENED BOY HEARS RADIO
"My boy hears everything on the radio!" writes Mrs. Gampier, Cincinnati. "Before he used Gurne he could not hear the radio." If you are deafened, bothered by ringing, buzzing head noises, this may be caused or aggravated by imbedded wax or a senile condition. Try the treatment that thousands say has enabled them to hear well again. It is called Gurne, a Vienna specialist's antiseptic prescription. Used since 1895—over a million packages sold. Safe ingredients as listed in U. S. Pharmacopoeia. Money refunded if you are not satisfied. Costs only a few cents daily. Ask about GURNE today.
